

Personal attention with global reach means you not only survive tough times, but you grow.

Our unique business model combines the high level service of a boutique firm with the global reach (over 50 offices worldwide) of an industry leader. Our consultants have sat in the "chairs" they now fill for our clients. This foundation of experience and expertise leads to stronger client relationships and superior results

Other activities –
President, The Hartford Club

Passions (besides his business) – Family, Golf, Fine food, and Fine wine (not necessarily expensive wine)

Peer to Peer Advisors
– Peer to Peer works because it brings together very well-matched peers who are leaders and experts in their businesses. They are my confidantes and consultants. It would be extremely expensive to purchase this expert consulting on an ala carte basis.
